RE: Reciprocity Agreement between Kentucky and Georgia

Dear Ms. Callaway:

As per our telephone conversation yesterday, enclosed please find two original Reciprocity Agreements which have been signed by Commissioner Rose. Upon execution by Attorney General Baker, please return an original to me and retain the second for your records.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation in this matter. It has been a pleasure working with you. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I may be of any further assistance.

Very truly yours,

RE: Reciprocity reciprocal agreement between Kentucky and Georgia

Dear Ms. Baker:

This is in response to your letter of July 31, 1998 and our telephone conversation following that letter. As I recall our conversation, you were going to devise a letter or some type of form which would memorialize an agreement which could be signed by Georgia's Attorney General entering into reciprocity with Kentucky. Please let me know if you have any questions or I could offer any assistance in this matter.

Thank you, in advance, for your cooperation in this matter and, again, I will be happy to answer any questions regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

RECIPROCIITY AGREEMENT

This Reciprocity Agreement by and between the Commonwealth of Kentucky by and through Kentucky State Police Commissioner Gary W. Rose and the State of Georgia by and through the Georgia Attorney General Thurbert E. Baker.

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Reciprocity Agreement is to extend reciprocal handgun carry permit/license privileges to the citizens of the State of Georgia and the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

WHEREAS, both Commissioner Gary W. Rose and Georgia Attorney General Thurbert E. Baker are authorized to enter into this Reciprocity Agreement pursuant to the applicable statutes in each respective state.

WHEREAS, in consideration of the matters described herein, and of the mutual benefits and obligations set forth in this Reciprocity Agreement, the Parties hereby agree and covenant as follows:

1. The Commonwealth of Kentucky will recognize valid Georgia licenses to carry concealed handguns by valid Georgia license holders while said license holders are present in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
2. The State of Georgia will recognize valid Kentucky licenses to carry concealed handguns by valid Kentucky license holders while said license holders are present in the State of Georgia.
3. This Reciprocity Agreement applies only to the carrying of "Handguns" by valid license holders from the respective state/commonwealth and not to any other types of weapons.
4. The State of Georgia and the Commonwealth of Kentucky will inform each other of any changes to their respective carry concealed weapons statutes that may affect the eligibility of the recognition granted by each state/commonwealth.
5. The State of Georgia and the Commonwealth of Kentucky will provide the other with copies of their current laws regarding concealed weapons and handgun carry licenses.
6. This Reciprocity Agreement is contingent upon and shall only remain effective as long as the respective statutory authority in each state/commonwealth authorizing the reciprocal privileges remains effective.

7. This Reciprocity Agreement shall become effective upon the execution of the authorized Parties' signatures.

WITNESSETH, each Party to this Reciprocity Agreement has caused it to be executed on the date indicated below.
